BENNETTSVILLE, SOUTH CAROLINA

Bennettsville, the county seat of Marlboro County, has a population of 10,000 residents. Located in northeastern South Carolina, the area is one of the richest agricultural centers in the state of South Carolina. Part of the South Carolina Cotton Trail™, Bennettsville hosts many large historic homes and farms.

Residents of Bennettsville enjoy fishing, swimming and boating on Lake Paul Wallace. This 600-acre lake also has a three-mile trail running along its eastern shore. There are also eight tennis courts, seven public parks, and many walking and biking trails scattered throughout Bennettsville.

While it is a small town, Bennettsville offers numerous arts and cultural events. The Marlboro Arts Council has been bringing an eclectic variety of year-round performances to the area for more than 40 years.
